Interior work is progressing on the Mathile Center for the Natural Sciences, scheduled to be completed in 2009.

The atrium of the Mathile Center, left, will be three stories high and provide a focal point for the building.

Sign Up For Text Messages

ONU has a cell phone text messaging service to alert faculty, staff and students of campus closings or emergencies. The system is designed to provide campus emergency information only, not general campus announcements. Sign-up is voluntary.

The message system will be tested at 11:50 a.m., on Thursday, Jan. 7. Be sure to subscribe before that date and be ready for the unexpected.

To subscribe, log on to Luminis and follow the link at the bottom of the page. You can unsubscribe in the same manner at any time. Depending on your cell phone plan, charges to receive a text message may apply.

Flex Spending Reminder

Now is the time to enroll for a flex spending account for 2009. Flex spending enrollment does not roll over from year to year. A new enrollment form needs to be filed with Human Resources.

All 2009 flex enrollment forms should be submitted to Human Resources by Dec. 19.

If you have a 2008 flex spending account, you may use those 2008 flex dollars for 2009 expenses that are incurred through March 15, 2009. However all expenses for which you are using 2008 flex dollars must be submitted no later than March 30, 2009.

Forms are available online at <http://is.gd/aZmA>

To learn more, contact Human Resources at ext. 2021.

Bookstore Holds Food Drive

ONU Bookstore's Annual Holiday Sale/Food Drive will be Thursday, Dec. 11.

Items not included in the sale are textbooks, electronics and food/drinks.

Please note that the sale cannot be combined with other discounts, such as faculty and staff discounts.

Dr. Terry Sheridan, associated professor of physics, is being recognized for his research in experimental dusty plasma physics. In the December issue of the American Institute of Physics publication, Physics Today, his work is cited in an article in the Physics Update section.

The publication is the most-frequently cited magazine in multidisciplinary physics, reaching more than 120,000 scientists and engineers at university, government and industrial labs in 151 countries

Justin F. Courtney, director of Residence Life, along with Carter Edman, Bostwick Design Partnership, and Ralph Kramer, Kramer Engineering, presented "Green'er' Facilities: A Call to Action" at the Great Lakes Association of College and University Housing Officers. The program was Oct. 18 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The program abstract says, "Many colleges and universities are in the forefront of going green through recycling and awareness initiatives. It is imperative for campuses to evaluate their physical structures in these efforts. Implementation of geothermal technology and other green efforts ensure successful sustainable practices. Ohio Northern University is embarking on phase II of a comprehensive housing transformation plan that incorporates geothermal technology. This presentation is designed to show the development of a comprehensive housing transformation plan, the economic benefits of going green in housing, and the importance of involving the campus community."

'Tales from the Corporate Boardroom'

The James F. Dicke College of Business Administration presents Karen Bohn, president and CEO of Galeo Group LLC, in the next installment of the Dean's Distinguished Lecture Series on Thursday, Dec. 11, at 7 p.m. in the Forum of Dicke Hall.

Bohn's lecture is titled "Tales from the Corporate Boardroom - One Director's Perspective."

Bohn provides strategic management resources to senior management teams and individual executive officers, including CEOs. These services include governance, strategy, management effectiveness, interim executive services and philanthropy. Bohn's clients include both private and public companies, from startups to Fortune 500 firms.

Prior to founding her own company, Bohn spent 22 years with Piper Jaffray Companies, where she held various positions, including investment banker, chief administrative officer, president of various subsidiaries and related organizations, and member of the board of directors.

The ONU College of Business Administration Dean's Distinguished Lecture Series brings to campus successful entrepreneurs and officers of major corporations to discuss current business issues.

'Hot Jazz on a Chilly Night'

This holiday season, warm up with hot jazz at Ohio Northern University. The ONU Northern Lights Jazz Ensemble presents a holiday concert on Thursday, Dec. 18, at 8 p.m. in the Freed Center for the Performing Arts.

This concert will feature a mixture of big-band favorites and jazz standards, including selections from John Coltrane, Jimmy Dorsey, Duke Ellington, Sammy Nestico and Quincy Jones, among others.

The ensemble is under the direction of Dr. David Kosmyna, visiting assistant professor of music.

Tickets are $15 for general admission. The Freed Center box office is open Monday through Friday from noon to 5 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Phone orders are accepted with MasterCard, VISA, American Express or Discover by calling 419-772-1900. Online ticketing is also available at www.freedcenter.com

Children's Book Drive Continues

The Freed Center for the Performing Arts, in partnership with Time Warner Cable, hopes to create a smile or two by donating over 700 children's books to local hospitals, libraries and schools.

You are invited to help promote literacy by donating a new or gently used book for children of all ages.

Look for brightly colored red boxes located throughout the campus and community for book dropoff. The children's book drive starts on Dec. 3, 2008, and runs until Dec. 23, 2008.

Many of this season's events at the Freed Center have been based on books to encourage children to read and then see how the book is brought to life on the stage.

Contact the Freed Center box office for details on upcoming events such as "The Velveteen Rabbit" on Jan. 15, 2009, and "The Kite Runner" on Jan. 24, 2009.

For more information about the book project, contact Catriona Macphie at 2656.

Remembering Rosemary Zika-Williams

On Thursday, Dec. 18, Tau Beta Sigma (TBS) and ONU music will hold a "Goodwill Day" in memory of the late Rosemary Williams, former piano/music faculty member at ONU. The event will run from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. in the Presser Hall lobby.

Members of Rosie's family have inherited many of her special possessions, but are unable to keep all of them. Therefore, instead of donating Rosie's treasured items to strangers, her brother, John, and his wife, Karen, will be bringing many of the items to ONU that day (including photos of Vienna and other places and events, slides, plaques, various handmade items and other mementos, Mary Englebreit pottery and other handmade pottery pieces, framed art work, posters, table linens, and clothing).

Friends and admirers of Rosie and Ed Williams may come to the Presser Lobby during that time to peruse these objects and keep any items they wish as a remembrance of Rosie and Ed.

All items are free, and all items will be given away on a first-come, first-served basis. TBS members will be on hand to help carry any items necessary and to answer any questions. The "giveaway" will conclude when Rosie's items are gone, or at 4 p.m.

Gift Ideas from the Freed Center

Do your holiday shopping at the Freed Center for the Performing Arts. For a limited time, the Freed Center is offering two special gifts.

This year for the children on your list, there is the classic children's book The Velveteen Rabbit, a soft and cuddly rabbit and a ticket to the stage presentation of the story at 7 p.m. on Jan. 15. The entire package makes a wonderful gift for children and is just $15.

For adults, The Kite Runner makes a thoughtful gift. The book has been on book club reading lists and is a huge international bestseller.

The Freed Center is combining a ticket to the performance at 8 p.m., Jan. 24, and the book in a beautifully wrapped gift for only $20.

You can also purchase a gift certificate to any of the upcoming events at the Freed Center in 2009. To learn more, call the Freed

Symphony Orchestra to Present New Concert Format

The Ohio Northern University Symphony Orchestra will perform the first of Haydn's London Symphonies, Symphony No. 93, in Presser Recital Hall at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 10.

The concert is free and open to the public.

Lloyd Butler, who will conduct the ONU Symphony Orchestra, explained that this is a new format that gives individuals a chance to see the symphony at work and hear a composition that was monumental in the development of the symphony. The "readings" are an opportunity for students to learn and become familiar with standard repertoire that may not be regularly performed publicly.

Prior to the 45-minute performance, Butler will give some historical background about the London Symphonies and provide a demonstration about classical symphony form.
